MESSAGE TO THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1985

As your Senior year at WHS draws to a close, I would like to congratulate you and express best wishes for your future, not only for myself but all members of the staff. The members of the class have established an enviable academic record and have responded very well to increased emphasis on academic progress, which has characterized your four years here. Acceptances at first-rate institutions of higher learning have come in in gratifying numbers, and the overall average of the class reflects much hard work and accomplishment.

In extra-curricular activities, our athletic and musical groups have achieved a championship level, earning recognition on a league, state and regional basis. This has brought honor to the community and has added to the reputation of the high school.

It seems most fitting to hope that all of you will achieve in your future undertakings the same level of success which has marked your class in high school. I sincerely hope this will be the case for all of you in the future.

Phillip F. Flaherty

From your apprehensive arrival as nervous freshmen in 1981, you were quick to respond to the unique spirit and atmosphere that is Westwood High School. As a class you came together to participate in the classroom, in athletics, in musical programs, on stage, and all the activities that bring about the reality-"we're in high school"... As individuals your goals developed and a strong sense of direction and academic pursuits became visible.

The Class of 1985 follows in the footsteps of many truly outstanding classes and you, also, have left a fine model for entering classes to pursue.

Preserve the valuable friendships of your years at Westwood High School and remain active in the alumni.

"Age Quod Agis."

Mr. Charles W. Flahive

No matter how it is said, there is no way to reduce the emotion captured by the simple phrase "Good-bye". The flood of thoughts and feelings reeling through our minds should be shared and experienced as we depart from what has been our home for the past four years, Westwood High School. This is a time of remembrance, a time to look back over our lives and recall with joy the many wonderful people who have shaped our lives here at Westwood High School. We are truly in their debt. While Westwood High has changed our lives forever, we have made a lasting impression in the hearts and minds of the faculty, family, and friends of Westwood High School.

"Valedictorian"---the goodbye teller. It is with much joy in my heart that I say goodbye to Westwood High School and wish the Class of 1985 all that's good in the world.

The Department of English at Westwood High School offers courses that emphasize understanding in the areas of grammar, literature, and composition. Whether experiencing Shakespeare for the first time, analysing a poem by E. E. Cummings, or putting the final touches on a term paper for A.P. English, students are bound to be doing so under the direction of a proficient teacher.

It is fair to say that the strength of this department lies in the expertise of its faculty members. It is their keen interest in and devotion to the intellectual growth of the students they teach as well as the generosity with which they share their time and wealth of information that has helped to make the study of literature in the English classrooms a pleasurable experience for Westwood High School students.

Parlez-Vous Espagnol?

Tapes, cultural experiences, written translations, and oral exercises-these are the things that have helped foreign language students to improve le francais, el espanol, latina, und Deutsche. The foreign language department is also offering to students the opportunity to experience first hand the language by sending them to Spain and Paris.

Mrs. Barbara Cummings

Mr. Robert Avakian

Miss Priscilla Congdon

Mr. Donald Beurman

Mr. William Davis

From apes to astronauts, the Social Studies Department has led us through the history of civilization. Freshman and sophomore years gave us only a hint of what was yet to come—U. S. History. Junior year, we all thoroughly enjoyed the exciting and informative commentaries by Miss Congdon and Mr. Avakian. We discovered there was more to Social Studies than History when we took Psychology, Economics, and Sociology during our Senior year.

Scientifically Speaking

The Science Department, under the direction of Mr. James Pender, provided again this year outstanding programs in the areas of natural and physical science. By Senior year students have been exposed to physical science, biology, chemistry, and physics. They have participated in outdoor labs with Mr. Burke, mated fruit flies with Mr. Sarris, and played with the "Physics is Phun" toys of Mr. Topalian. The Class of 1985 extends its thanks and best wishes to the teachers of this fine department.

Take A Derivative

The Math Department, directed by Mr. James Pender, offered students interesting courses ranging from Algebra 1 to A.P. Calculus. The team-teaching program, math seminar room, and computer room allowed students to progress individually while also permitting them to pursue special areas of interest. Teachers were available to students for SAT review, independent study, and cadet teaching. The students of the Class of 1985 thank the faculty members of the Math Department for their dedication.

Industrial Arts

Mr. Lawrence Rettman

With guidance provided by Area Coordinator Mr. Lawrence Rettman, the Industrial arts department succeeded in giving experience and skill to the students. Our special thanks to the members of this department.

Mr. Thomas Nelson

Miss Lisa Mackay

Home Economics

Our special thanks are extended to these members of the faculty who provide students with knowledge of many day to day activities, such as the growth and development of children, fashion design, and preparation of foods. Pictured are Mrs. Joanne Arnold and Mrs. Susan Costanza.

Business Department

Led by Mr. Rettman, the Business Department this year taught such skills as typing, accounting, shorthand, data processing, and office procedures. Our thanks to this department for providing skills needed in college and a business career. Pictured is Mrs. Irene Dnosi.

Mrs. Natalie Carey

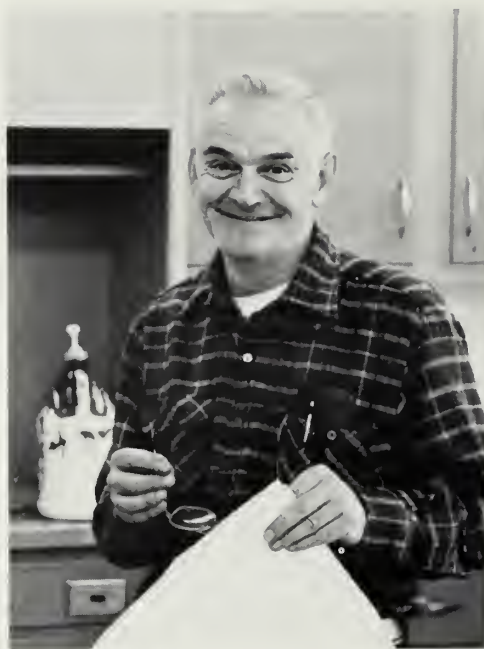

Mr. Albert Nolan

Mrs. Jeine Kamberidis

Art

Art played a major role in W.H.S.'s curriculum this year. Studies included ceramics, portfolio design, and art history with Mr. Milan. Our special thanks to those teachers who brought creativity out of the students.

Mr. Thomas Del Signore

Mrs. Judith DesPres

Music

Mr. James Giurleo

With the new addition of Mr. James Giurleo as Director of Music, the department really came out this year. Our special thanks and wishes for future success to Mr. Giurleo and his department.

Twelve minute runs, fitness tests, and Mr. Tucelli's "warm-up's" are just a few of the things which made up the physical education department, led by Mr. Joseph Gearon. Many thanks to this department for all its efforts. Pictured also, Mr. Russell Downes.

Mr. Don MacGillivray

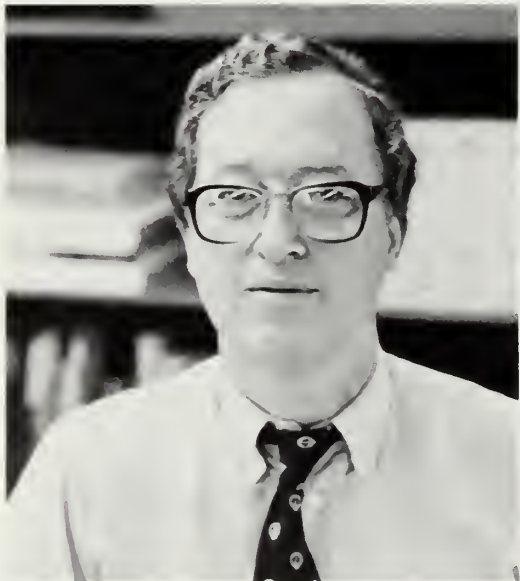

Our great thanks go to Mrs. Clement and Don, who tended to our injuries, both great and small.

Helping Hands

An important part of Westwood High School, the Learning Center provides with the extra help they need to make it through the curriculum at Westwood High. Our special thanks to Mrs. Elizabeth Rae, Mrs Anna Runci, Mrs. Martha Stacey, and Mrs. Carol Rosegarten.

Get Out Of Here

"Four to a table" and the delinquent students list are just two of the library's most memorable phrases we learned. Pictured are Mr. Eugene Sweezy, Mrs. Nanette Eckert, and Mrs. Virginia McCoubrey

Guidance

Mr. Thomas Hughes

Ms. Cheryl Hogan

Under the direction of Dr. William Pendell, this year's Guidance Department helped upperclassmen choose a school and underclassmen choose their courses. Our special thanks also go to Mrs. Susan Bornstein, CET Chairperson, and Mrs. Lorraine Brinton, our School Psychologist. Thanks also go to Mrs. Donna Watkins, METCO coordinator at W.H.S.

Self-Contained

Mrs. Anne Matteson

Mr. James Flaherty

This year's Self-Contained program helped those students whose needs were not met by the regular school curriculum. With this program, the students needs were met while the student was allowed to enjoy a regular school atmosphere.

Special Education

The Special Education Department this year helped the exceptional student learn the skills needed to perform in a fundamental academic situation. Our special thanks to these teachers who helped to build skill and character.

Mrs. Jeanne Connolly

Mrs. Janet Borgman

The V.I.P.'s Of W.H.S.

Our great thanks to those who keep our school in tip-top condition.

Ray Gurdy, Mr. John Doe, Mr. Ed Reed, Mr. John Foley, Mrs. Helen Thornton

Special thanks go to the people who really keep the students going, the cafeteria workers.

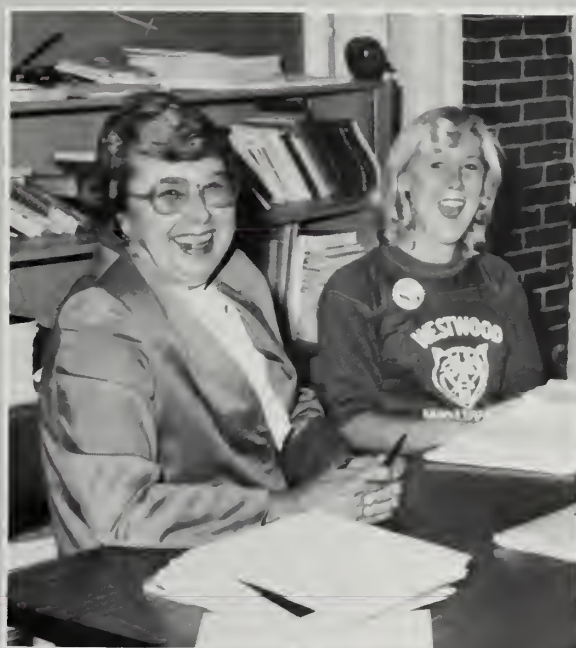

Dedication

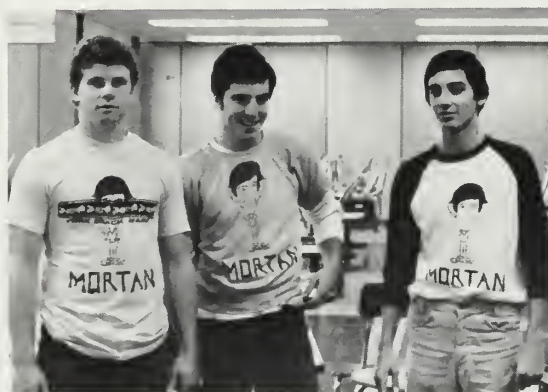

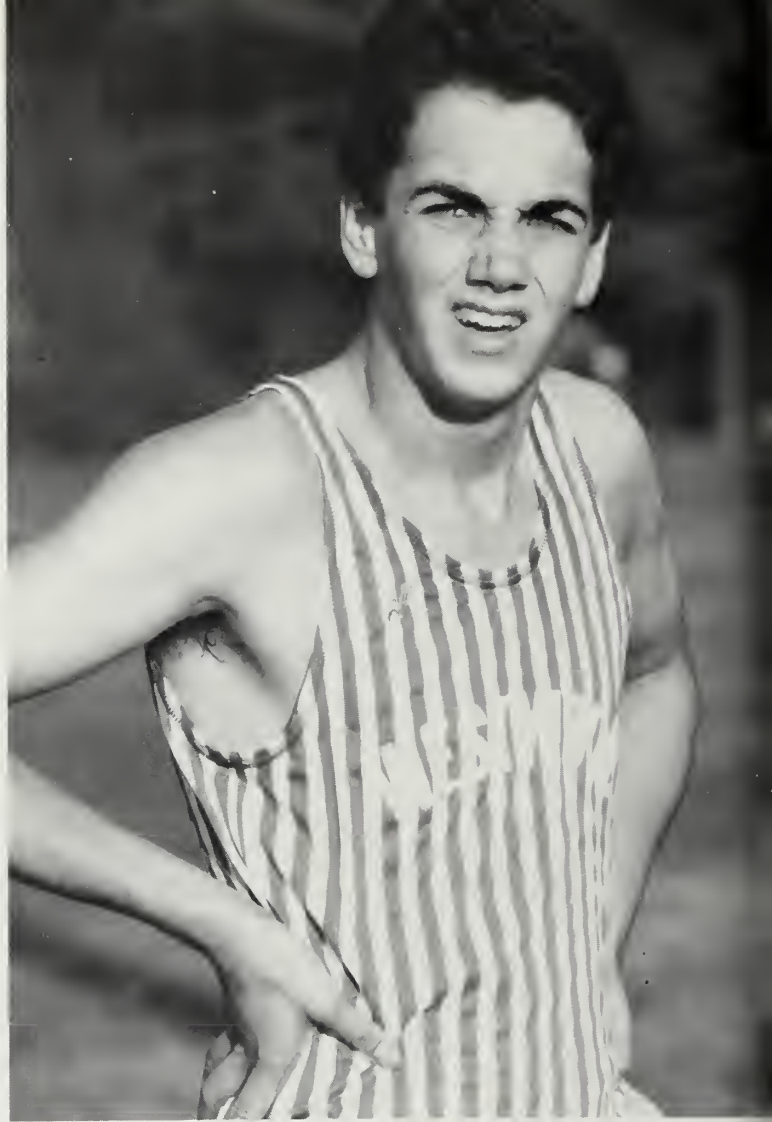

Throughout the last four years everyone of us has been touched in some way or another by the dedication shown by the faculty at Westwood High School. Whether we have been affected by a teacher's intense devotion to his craft, his or her seemingly limitless knowledge, or perhaps more personally by an encouraging word, the devotion and concern of the faculty for the students of this school have been powerful influences on our development.

The Class of 1985 has chosen to dedicate the yearbook to a teacher who has shown a profound dedication to teaching and to the students. She has always been available to us, in and out of the classroom. She has counselled us, advised our activities, directed a major school club and offered us loving encouragement. We will be forever indebted to her for her time and special devotion to our class. It is with deep gratitude that we dedicate the 1985 Green Years to you, Mrs. Barbara Cummings.

Best Wishes

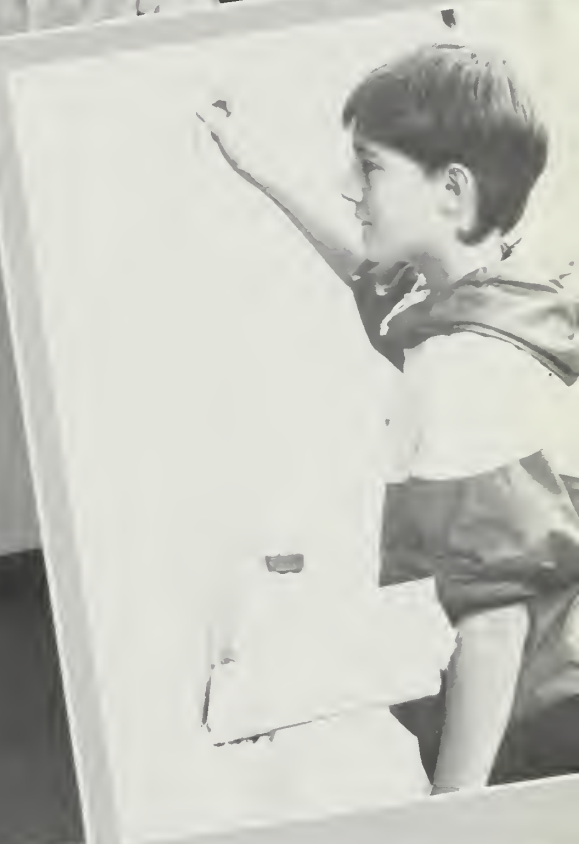

Students of Westwood High School will long remember the many contributions made by Miss Frances Burns. A gifted teacher and a dedicated educator, Miss Burns gave the school and community thirty-eight years of devotion and service. She encouraged reading and demanded superior writing from many students over the years. She advised the first chapter of N.H.S., coached plays, and promoted the literary magazine. In all that she did, she was noted for her warmth and caring. She can truly be considered a model of the teaching profession. Students of the future will benefit from the lasting legacy of honesty, hard work and love of learning she leaves the high school.

Class Poem

The Open Door

Here we stand
Before the door of our future-
Our hopes, our goals,
Our fears, our doubts.

The door is before us,
Hiding our destinations-
The opportunities, the challenges,
The sorrows, the joys.

Are we ready To open this door-
To accept the responsibilities
That lie beyond us,
To face the challenges
That await us,
And to experience all
That life has to offer?

We gather our courage
And reach for the doorknob.
It is cool to the touch
And sends shivers up the spine.

And now we turn the doorknob,
With hesitation, with haste.
Breath catches as the door cracks
And we catch a glimpse
Of what lies before us:
A never ending spectrum
Of people and places,
Times and things.

But only the imagination
Can travel through this narrow opening.
We can see only so little
Of all that is out there;
for our vision is blocked
By the barely opened door.

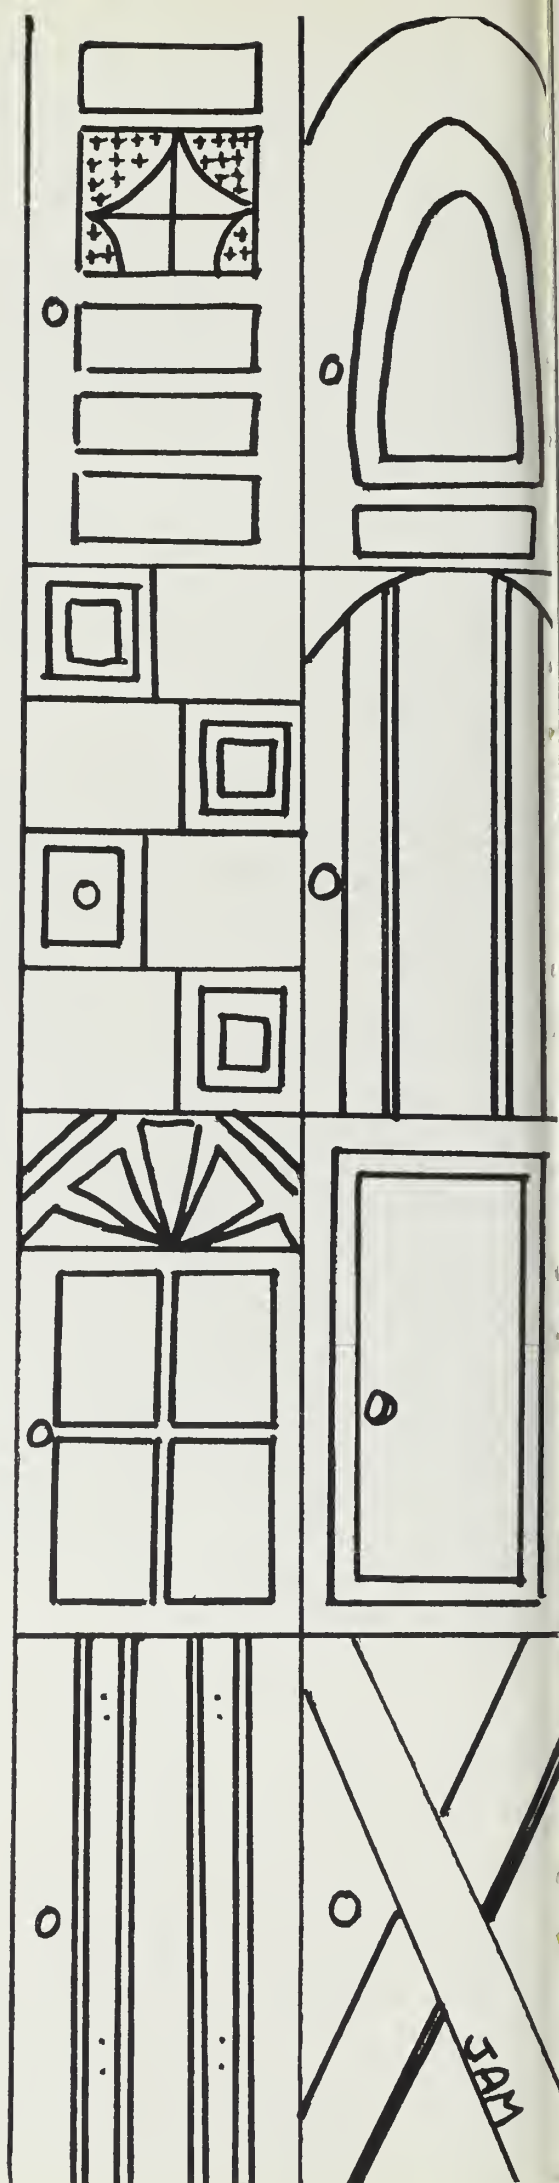

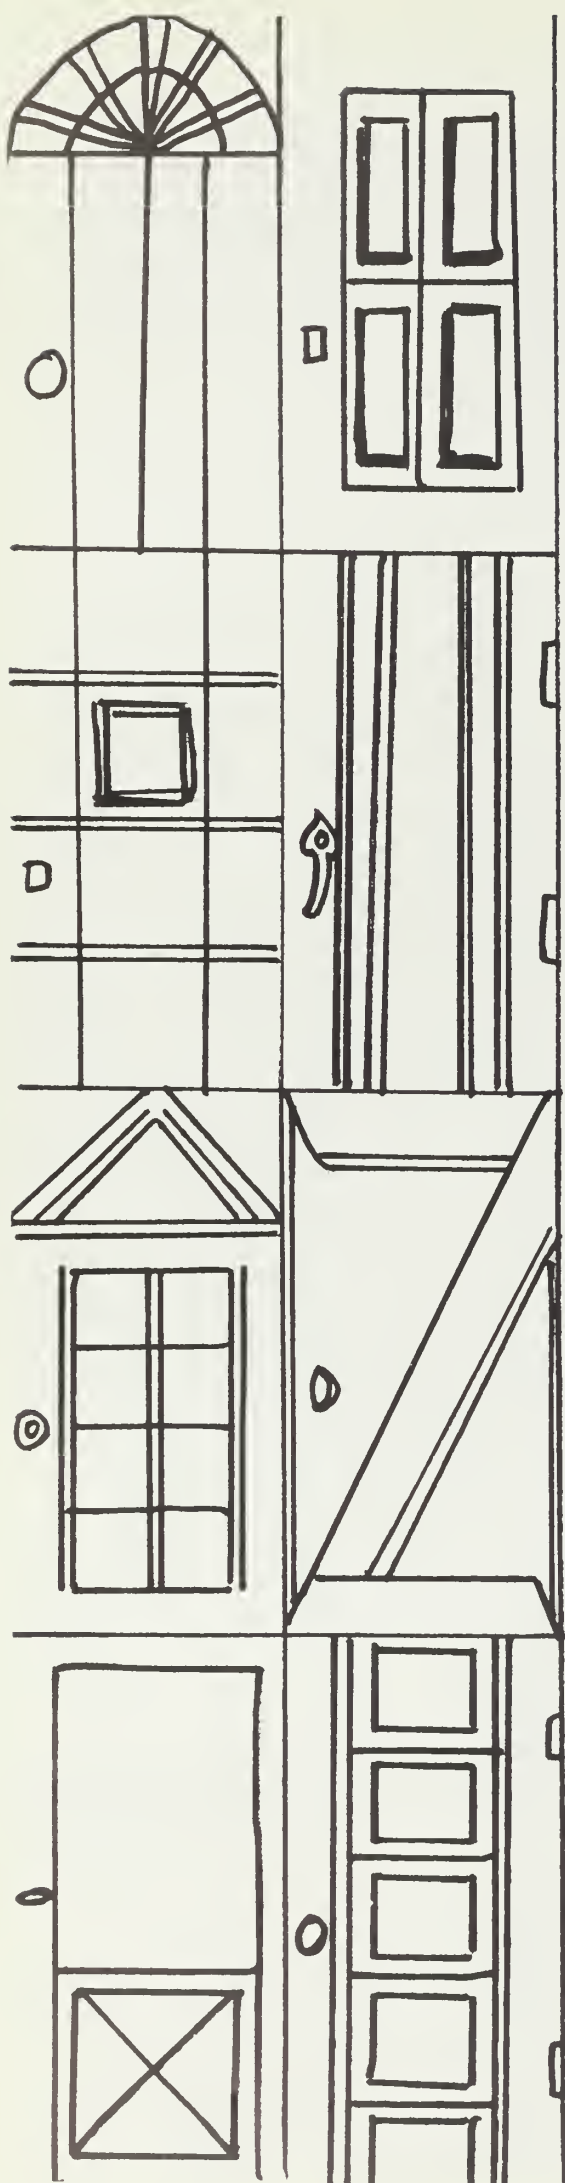

It is here that we must separate,
For our journey together
Ends here at the door.
Many will stop here
Thinking the limit has been reached.
They will remain
Hungry outside the door,
Forever looking in
At the little which can be seen.

Others will open the door
Just a little wider
To see a bit more;
One foot in the door,
Receiving only a taste of the morsel
Mistaken for a banquet.

Yet, there are some of us
Who will fling open the door
As far as it will go,
And walk to the feast beyond it,
Exploring the infinite colored
Horizon called Life.

Come.
Open the door wider
And discover
All that lies beyond.
For the door is not locked . . .

In Loving Memory

Like the tiny spring flower
That first dared to push its greenness through the cool, muddy soil.
Bravely did your petals unfold
And stretch toward the sky.
The garden that seemed to be frozen for eternity
Was awakened by your radiance,
As if one thousand sunrises had warmed the air
With a soft yellow light.

Too soon you were taken from us by the cruel frost
Yet the vitality you brought to it will not be forgotten.
Whispered in every Spring breeze is the memory
Of the Spring that you began.

Student Council

The 1985 WHS Student Council proved to be one of the most energetic councils in the school's history. It was a year of champions and one of fantastic school spirit. As usual, Homecoming week kicked off with a bang. The pep Rally raised spirits high as our WHS teams prepared for their games the next day. The Halloween Dance concluded the week as students danced their legs off in a variety of "crazy" costumes.

The Student Council provided a Blood Mobile as students had their blood syphoned. Christmas as well as Valentine Carnations proved to be a big hit creating friendships, romances, and "brownie" points. The Student Body danced the night away in the 1985 Valentines Day Dance in their reds and whites. Amy Christensen and Eric Haines ruled the dance as king and queen. Thanks to the hard work by the Student Council in providing these activities, the year was a fun and spirited one. There were alot of memories and laughs left behind.

This years officers Dan Hart, Pres.; Chrissy Antenellis, Vice Pres.; Julie Thurmond, Secr.; Katie Lynch, Tres. and the Student Council would lide to thank Miss Bolles, our advisor, for all of her hard word and dedication. Another special thanks goes to Mr. Delsignore for his dazzling posters, and to those students and teachers who donated their services.

Good Luck to the Student Council next year.

With Mrs. McCoubrey as our advisor, and a board consisting of Michelle Barry, Jessica Hall, June Williamson, Susan Coppa, Melissa Fischler, Jennifer Shea, and Stephanie Yphantes, the AFS club was very active. Although there was no exchange student this year, Amy Crawford will travel abroad this summer. There were two short term exchanges, one to Pelham New York and one to Laurel Maryland. A four day trip to Quebec City for the Winter Carnival was also a popular event. Pot-luck dinners, holiday parties, and the Annual International Dinner were activities that all members of the club participated in. The board would like to thank Mrs. McCoubrey who helped to make this year a successful one.

The orchestra this year had the distinction of being Mr. James Guirleo's first, here at Westwood High. The orchestra performed several concerts throughout the school year, including the Christmas Festival and the Pops Concert. Mr. Guirleo conducted the orchestra on a wide array of pieces including "Marche Slave", "The Hallelujah Chorus", and "The King and I". Thanx for all your help Mr. Guirleo and best wishes for your future orchestras.

Dance Band

Amid cries of "Lennie is our Hero". and "Saxes Rule", the W.H.S. Dance Band swept it's way through the 84-85 season with flourish. Activities included playing for the Ham and Bean Supper, the Pancake Breakfast, the AFS dinner, plus the Big Band Night and the Pops Concert. The best part of the season culminated with the tour of New Hampshire during May. Overwhelmed by the Dance Band's playing ability, especially seen in "Sun Cat" and Anne and Kev's duet, the N.H. students knew talent when they heard it. The true motivating force behind the Dance Band, besides Lennie, was Mr. Craig Madge saying "Seize the Day!", and the whole band remembering that it was a festival, not a wedding.

No Parentheses

No Parentheses, the school literary and art publication broke tradition this year. With the guidance of Mr. Milan the magazine sponsored its first poetry contest which encouraged many talented students to submit over 70 entries. The winning poetry was featured in the fall issue, along with more artwork, prose, and poetry. Directed by senior editors Mei Lin and Karen Bier, the editing staff managed to produce a spring issue, which gave student writers and artists another chance to publish their work. A special thanks goes to typist Sharon Kruger, to the dedicated reading staff, and of course to advisor Mr. Milan for making this year such a success.

The Westwood High School Wolverine Marching Band had a very successful season this year. Their winning season was highlighted by placing first overall in the captions of Best Drum Major, Best Drum Line, and second in Best Colorguard out of a field of fifteen bands from all over New England. At their last competition they were awarded the title, "Best Band in New England in Division One." Because of their success they were invited to perform in Florida at Walt Disney World. The Band was very proud of their performance and is confident of success in the future.

Cheerleading

Homecoming

Homecoming Week—1984 stumbled to its feet with Hat Day. Although the beginning of homecoming may have slipped the minds of many, WHS showed their pride and managed to dig up some "chapeaus." Among the most original were the hats worn by juniors Julie Riley and Marty White, who took the Hat Day honors.

Student Council tried something new this year, Fifties Day. The halls were filled with teeny-boppers and greasers—Chubby Checker would have been proud. Fifties Day was a big success. Sophomore Hope Irvine and senior Kevin Sareault were chosen to represent this success.

On Wednesday, Westwood High was a splash of colors, and plaids, and polka dots, and stripes, to say the least. You guessed it—Wednesday was Clash Day, a traditional favorite. Dear Mr. Hanley would have fit in great with the num-nums at WHS that day. Junior Lois Gerulskis and senior "Pistol" Peter Foehl showed their pride by showing their true colors and were recognized for their originality.

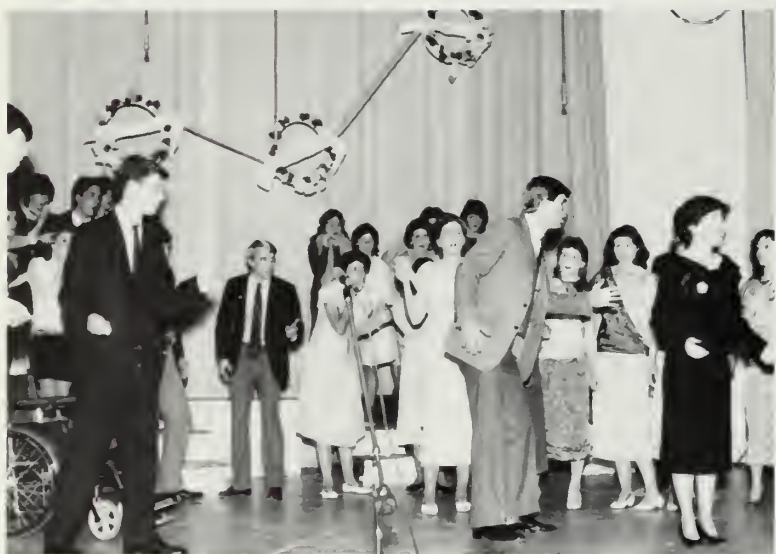

A touch of old Athens came to Westwood on Thursday, Toga Day. We Wolverines just rolled out of bed, rolled into our sheets, and we were set for the day. The Golden Urn was awarded to seniors Chrissy Antonellis and Larry Curley for going all out Greek.

At last Friday came—Green Pride Day, and proud we were. Green and white filled the air, and the halls. The student body got psyched for the pep rally last block. The Wolverine cheerleaders led us into battle (and victory) against Baby Blue Medfield with this year's "Let's Go Crazy" theme. Senior Dyana Talty was a true symbol of our Green Pride—our own "Mean Green Machine". WHS chose the Queen and Her Court. Representing us at the Homecoming Football Game were freshman Suzanna Federico, sophomore Hope Irvine, junior Claire DeAngelis, seniors Lynn Thorton, Susan Kallenberg, Julie Thurmond, and our Queen Elaine Warrick.

Thanks to the Student Council, Ms. Bolles, and the entire school's participation, this year's Homecoming Week turned out to be a very exciting and memorable experience for all those involved.

Champions . . .

1984 Westwood Wolverine Football Team completed the most successful season in its history by compiling the most impressive 10-1 record. Led by tri-captains Paul Dressons, John Cronin, and Tom Bennett, the Wolverines won the Division 4 Super Bowl for the first time by defeating Cardinal Spellman 28-26.

The offense, led by quarterback Ted Shea and running backs Paul Dressons, Matt Calvagne, and James Guindon amassed an incredible 287 points over a course of 11 games, an average of 28 points per game. Ted, protected admirably by his offensive line known as the Magnificent Seven, led Division 4 in touchdown passes, as well as, breaking a Westwood record for passing yards. Only allowing Ted to be sacked 5 times, the "Mag Seven", consisting of ends, Brian Magberg and Joey Biggs; tackles, Dave Spinale and Tom Bennett; guards John Cronin and Rick Susi and center Bill Walsh were an instrumental part of the team's success.

The defense continued its tenacious ways of past years by allowing a mere 11 points per game on the average. The defense received tremendous play all year from linemen Chuck Bean and Tom Bennett; linebackers, John Cronin,

Paul Palermo, and Matt Calvagne, and defensive backs, Tom Ferzoco, Mike McDonald, Jim Griffin, and Paul Dresens, The defense as a whole was immense in stopping such offensive powers as Foxboro and Millis to name just a couple.

The team reached the goal set early in the season by first-year Coach Eric Wilfinger of returning to the Super Bowl for a second consecutive year. In a game that will be remembered by all, the Wolverines fought back from a seemingly insurmountable 20-6 deficit with two 18 yd. touchdown receptions by Brian Hagberg. The Wolverine defense limited a very powerful Spellman offense to a scant 6 points in the second half. Westwood thus completed a most remarkable comeback by defeating Spellman and winning the first Super Bowl in Westwood history. The 1984 Westwood High School Wolverines will go down as the best football team in the school's history.

The yearly ritual of dusting off our "hacked" knee pads signaled the dreaded end of our summer vacation. After each double session of try-outs, we compared bruises acquired from repeated times of "hitting the floor." Practices usually went well. However, Mr. West was always pleasantly surprised at how well our Monday practices went when the football team was watching. "Starlight" blared on our first bus ride to an away game and later became the theme song. Mr. West never forgot our insatiable appetites after a trying match. On every ride home there was a mad dash for the Doritos and chips.

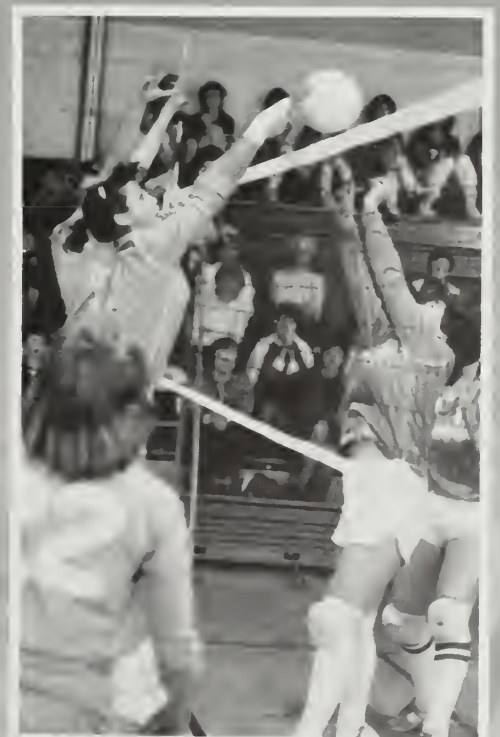

Aided by Julie's laugh and Mary's graceful landings, we struggled through our conditioning drills and practices. Tri-captains Mary Collari, Claire DeAngelis and Mary Jo Kremer led the team to a victorious 8-6 season, finishing third in the TVL.

Wet Winners!

Congratulations to the Girls Swim Team for an outstanding season. Team standouts Beth Feraro and Ann Marie Gugliemi led the team, while seniors Sue Darey, Heather Maynard, Christine Lawless, Laura DeAngelis, Kathy Seward, and Stephanie Grokulsy kept the spirit and practices going. Congratulations and good luck girls.

All Clams wish to remain anonymous

Coach Russ Clough led the Westwood Swim Team, the Clams, to an 8-3 record in the Bay State League. Under Captains Tom Bennett and Matt Skelly, the Clams worked hard all season (except for one idiot-fest Friday). Kevin Fitzpatrick broke the school's 200 IM record twice. Other standouts were Chuck Flanagan, Mike Niles, and Andy Winslow.

Led by captains Mark McGowan, Andy Power and Paul Hardiman, the Wolverines won both the TVL and State Championship by posting a record breaking 22-2-1 season. The team remained ranked #1 by both the Globe and HNIB throughout the year.

The offense led by Jim Conway, Ed Kirrane, Paul Hardiman, Bob MacDonald, Nick Peters and John MacDonald, smashed all Westwood and TVL scoring records. The Wolverines posted an astounding three 11 goal games in a row.

Much of Westwood's success was due to their outstanding defense. Goaltenders Dave Perararro and Tom McCusker were stalwarts between the pipes. Mark McGowan headed the defense as he stopped, or maimed, anyone who came near the Wolverine net. Sol Cohen, Rocco Rugerio and Andy Power all wreaked havoc throughout the league with bone crushing hits and unbelievable defensive maneuvers.

This year's TVL allstars included Forwards Jim Conway, Paul Hardiman, and Ed Kirrane, Defensemen Mark McGowan, and Sol Cohen. Honorable mentions were given to goaltenders Dave Pecararo and Tom McCusker. Sophomore Nick Peters received the sportsmanship award.

This year's graduating seniors wish the team good luck next year.

Sprints, what a joke.

Girls Tennis Romps

Congratulations are in order for the Girls' Tennis Squad which did surprisingly well this season, qualifying for the playoffs and reaching the finals. Standouts included Twisty Gogolak, Michelle Barry and Marla Davis. Good job, girls.

The Best

FRESHMAN YEAR

At the start of our adventure, just four autumns ago, we were young, innocent, and ready to make the most of our high school years. Confidently leading us into the unfamiliar were our first class officers, John Cronin, Lynn Thornton, Janet Dion, and Laurie Losardo. Finding seniors already settled into assigned freshman lockers and wandering aimlessly down long corridors, books and folders in hand, was only the beginning of the traditional "freshman treatment." The football team endured many helmet pounding by upperclassmen during Homecoming Week, which introduced hat, pajama, clash, toga, and green pride days. Representing the class of 1985 in the Homecoming court was Laurie Losardo. The winter months flew by, and as spring arrived with with dread of finals, we looked forward to the coming fall when we would enjoy the status of sophomores.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

We began our sophomore year knowing that we were entering yet another phase of our high school years. As sophomores we were faced with speech after speech in Ms. Shute's Oral English class. Health (along with Dr. Ringle) was another pit stop along the road to graduation. A select number of self-assured (or insane) students chose to discover the F generation with Mr. Sarris in Molecular Biology, but the majority of us chose the path of Cellular Biology with either Mrs. Saltmarsh or Mrs. Thwing and were eligible to participate in Whale Watch '83.

Our President sophomore year was Lynn Thornton with Laurie Losardo as Vice President, Julie Thurmond as Secretary, and Lori Nader as Treasurer. They led us in spirit throughout the year starting with Homecoming Week. We participated in Hat Day, Career Day, Color Code Day, Clash Day, and Green Pride Day and elected Susan Kallenberg to represent our class in the Homecoming Court. The week ended with the Halloween Dance which was a success. In spite of the fact that only a handful of sophomore boys bothered to show up.

The talented athletic teams of the Class of '85, several of whom were destined to one day be champions, were still in the J.V. form sophomore year. Unless they had made varsity, the sophomores were still ordered to bring in the balls, nets, and cones just like the freshmen.

Without the luxury of having a driver's license most of us we were faced with limited transportation. This definitely affected the social life and we looked forward to new freedoms (and responsibilities) junior year.

JUNIOR YEAR

We entered our junior year with mixed emotions. We were excited about finally becoming titled upperclassmen, but rumors about PSAT's, SAT's, and Achievements worried us. We felt confident with our officers, President Ricky Susi, vice-president Russ McInnis, secretary Julie Thurmond and treasurer Susan Penza.

Once we were all settled in at the thought of being juniors and all tangled up in U.S. history, Homecoming Week was upon us. We all came in with various outfits to fit the traditional days of hats and clash. We elected Julie Thurmond as our Homecoming representative. At the end of the week we used our imaginations and came up with some very original costumes for the Halloween which marked the closing of Homecoming Week.

The Wolverines showed their pride once again as we cheered our football team to the Super Bowl. We lost that year but definitely left our mark on what was to come. We had an excellent year for sports. The boys' cross-country team was undefeated that year. The girls' track with Elise, the girls' basketball with Pam, Julie, and Caroline, the Golf team with Breen, the Hockey team and girls' tennis team were all Tri-Valley League Champs.

Even though we weren't supposed to wear walk-mens in school, we spent time listening to Michael Jackson's "Thriller," U2's "Sunday Bloody Sunday," Prince's "Little Red Corvette" and the Police's "Every Breath You Take."

We were all happy to have Spring in the air after spending one afternoon locked-up in the gym snowed in. The Spring Musical "Annie Get Your Gun" was extremely successful with many 85ers putting in great performances. Prom time came closer and Lionel Richie's sing "Hello" started to make Memories. The King Phillip Ballroom was where our Junior court was crowned. We were well represented with Gretchen Flahive, Susan Stapleton, Cindy Rosenblad, and Rina Federico.

Our Finals were over and we were proud to wear the well-deserved honor of being called seniors. We rushed out to the parking lot all licenced, since we had spent 30 hours in drivers ed, ready to drive away from junior year and ready to go head-on into senior year.

SENIOR YEAR

Our Senior year began as many classes before us. Excited to finally be at the top of the ladder, we looked forward to the great year ahead.

Led by Sue, Lynn, Sue and John, we began our year with the Senior Class Breakfast and Powderpuff Game. We girls put in many hard hours of practice, but unfortunately lost the game to the boys by a score of 19 to 6. The girls did have the last laugh though when Dave Peccararo and the other senior boys walked off the field with cake smeared all over their faces.

Homecoming Week showed lots of spirit with Hat Day, Clash Day, Toga Day, 50's Day and of course Green Pride Day. Our Homecoming queen was Elaine Warrick and her court Julie Thurmond, Sue Kallenberg and Lynn Thornton.

As our Senior year progressed, our activities were many. In December we had an enjoyable Christmas celebration, the Christmas Cotillion. Along with having alot of successful events, we also had alot of successful teams. From music to acakemixs to sports, Westwood made its name known. Jen Traylor led the Band to the title of #1 in all tea of New England. The football team gallantly became the Super Bowl champions for the first time in Westwood History by beating Cardinal Spellman, With Ted Shea and Paul Dresens as the keys to the team's success. The hockey team was also successful and was awarded the Tri-Valley Division title with Mark McGowen chosen as MVP. Through the talent of Pam Nee, Caroline Granese and Julie Casey the girls basketball team also reigned supreme with an overall record of 24-2, successfully beating Oakmont in their suspenseful final game at the Worchester Centrum.

The Senior Class Play "Stage Door" as a great show with June and Pete doing a great job as the leads.

Although we had no AFS student this year we did have a German student who lived and went to school with us in Westwood all year. Joachin Wiechers as Yo-Yo as we know him added quite a bit of fun to our senior year.

Our next activity and yet another unfortunate loss for the girls was the boy/girl hockey game. The game was close, but in the end the boys were victorious by a score of 2-1. It was worth it though to see Charles Bean and Elaine Warrick spend most of their time sitting rather than skating on the ice and Dan Hart and Pete Foehl's ridiculous shorts.

With the comin of the Senior Class Banquet on April 26, we realized our days at WHS were numbered. The banquet was short but sweet with a great slide show set to the song "Don't You Forget About me." Entertainment was provided by the Dance Band, the Peasants and Michael Mason on the guitar.

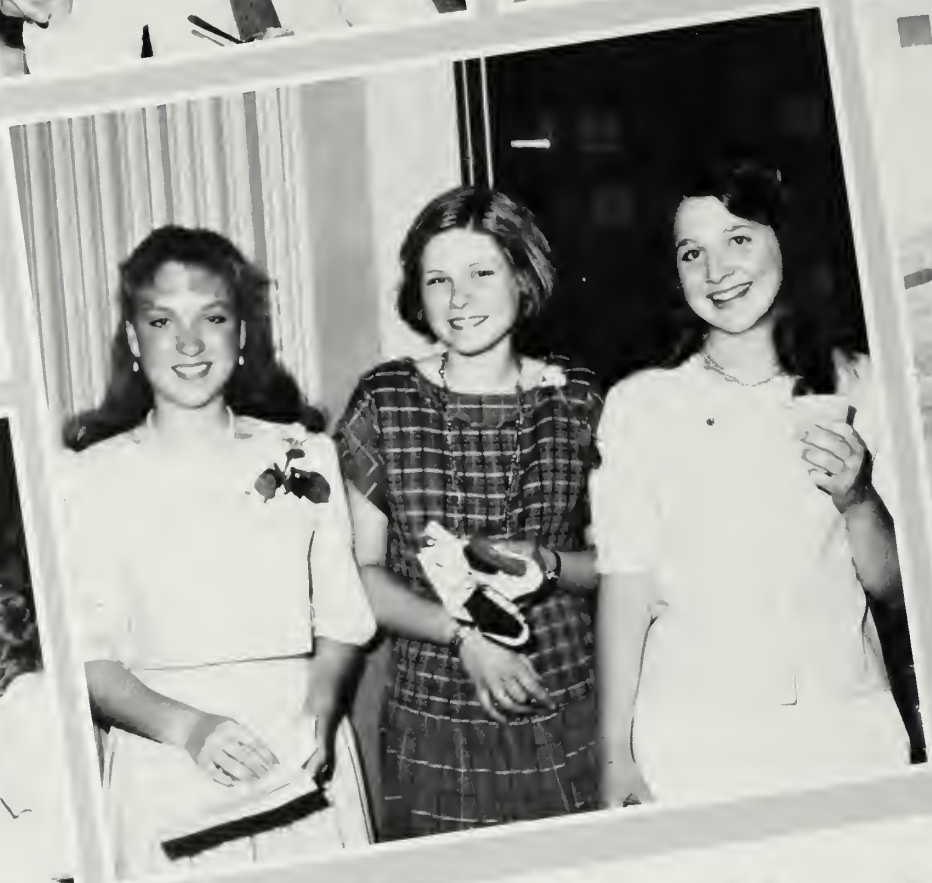

Being the unique class we are; when April and May came rolling around and "senioritis" set in we decided that the normal "1" skip day was not enough and decided to take 3. Unfortunately we payed the price at the end of the year.

On May 17, the Junior/Senior Prom took place. The theme was "One More Night" and the evening was a great time for all, with Caroline Granese reigning as Queen and Elise Papetti, Lynnie Abel, Gina Malvone and Kathy Dramus on her court. Special entertainment was provided by the talented singer Kris Russell.

Our last activity as a class was the Beach trip. This was a great success as wa all headed out to Crane's Beach on the beautiful day lf May 28th.

We awaeted the arrival of Sunday June 2nd with mixed feelings. When it finally arrived we all received our diplomas with the reazotatopm tjeat pi realization that our high school careers were over.

Memories of our senior year will remain with us forever though. Having had the winningest year in Westwood history we can say that our senior year year was a year of tremendous accomplishment that mom none of us will soon forget. We now, as a class, say goodbye to WHS and look eagerly to the future.

Senior Class Advisors

We, the Class of 1985, wish to express our gratitude to the teacher advisors who helped make our senior year so successful. The senior advisors spent many hours organizing, chaperoning, and supervising our various activities. We sincerely thank them for sharing with us their time, experience, and knowledge.

Senior Class Flea Market

Early in September the senior class held its annual flea market. The weather was terrific that Saturday and many cans of soda, hot dogs, and second hand articles were sold. Taking advantage of the grand opportunity to make money, many of the school organizations set up stands and waited for the crowds. Not only did the flea market get the year of to a good start financially, it was an enjoyable occasion for all of the seniors who pitched in.

Something new this year was performed by the talented actors of the Senior Class. After weeks of unpredictable rehearsals our final production was put on. And thanks to Mr. James Flaherty's help, the two performances were a huge success and an enjoyment for the audiences and the actors involved. The Senior Class would like to express its greatest appreciation to Mr. Flaherty for his time and effort that helped make this a memorable experience for all involved.

Breakfast At Bickford's

Once again, the Powder Puff Football game was a huge success. Many spectators turned out to watch the girls play the boys on a sunny, September morning. Despite the girls' hard work, enthusiasm, and their assault of David Pecaro, the boys managed to win by a score of 19-6. All in all, the game was a lot of fun for everyone. Special thanks go to coaches Mr. and Mrs. Cummings, Mr. Hart, the boys football team, and to all the faculty members who volunteered their time.

Senior Banquet

The Seniors arrived in groups wearing dresses and suits, prepared to enjoy an evening of food, entertainment and friendly company. Background (?) music was provided by the class rock group, The Peasants, featuring Mark Sweeney as lead singer; Mike Mason played a bright rendition of the easy-going song "Here Comes the Sun" on his guitar; and finally, the class viewed a slide presentation coordinated with the song "Don't You Forget About Me." The highlight of the evening was the announcement of this year's Superlative awards made by the Green Years editors. Although the banquet was short it was certainly sweet as many people thoroughly enjoyed the night's festivities.

Senior Junior Prom

The Junior Senior Prom was a wonderful time for everyone who came to the King Philips Ballroom on the evening of May 17. Red, white, pink, and blue colored gowns swirled across the floor next to elegant tuxes and plastic shoes. The theme for the evening was "One More Night" and the evening reached its climax upon the crowning of Caroline Granese as queen as Elise Papetti, Lynnne Abel, G. Malvone and Kathy Dramus as court members. Special entertainment was provided by the talented singer Chris Russel.

The people who attended the prom will not soon forget the glitter and excitement nor the dancing, romancing and gallivanting that it inspired.

Beach Trip?

Although the beach trip wasn't a total success, the students made the best of it. Pictured here are some of those students making the best of other situations.

Class Day 1985 . . .

Class Day, 1985, celebrated not only Seniors but all classes at Westwood High School. Awards were handed out, the Class History was read, speeches were presented by members of the Senior Class, including Jochiem Weichers, a student from Germany. The highlight of the ceremony was the dedication of Green Years to Mrs. Barbara Cummings. A very exciting day, this would be, thank God, the second to last time we would hear "Pomp and Circumstance". From the class of '85, our special thanks.

We've got something for students who need money for school.

HELP

Our Higher Education Loan Program (HELP) can keep students right where they belong. In school.

If you're an undergraduate, you can borrow up to $2500 per year at South Shore Bank. Graduate students, as much as $5000 per year. And you don't have to start paying us back till you leave school or graduate.

To qualify for HELP you must be enrolled in an accredited school, carry at least a half-time study load, and meet the school's definition of financial need.

Even if you don't qualify for HELP, you may be eligible for up to $3000 per year through our Parent Loans for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) program. PLUS is for parents with good credit who can start repaying your loan immediately. So call any one of our South Shore Bank offices. And get the HELP you need.

AN IDYLIC SETTING

- an idyllic setting in the WESTERN WOOD.

Cambrium grows HIGH, on which to climb.
On whose stiff limbs we, nature's variations,
Coexist by the methods of our kind.

The pine of life's SCHOOL shoots needles
Into variations climbing on a line,
In a continuing search to find a niche.
The hurt is motivation's petty fine.

What is CLASS when all is off the ground;
When all falls bruise our mentor, earth,
From which we hope to blossom in bold hues.
Individuals share danger, love, and mirth.

The wood is bathed in June's green glow.
Releasing us, the branches sigh
And bid farewell to tender wards.
Thus completes the growth ring OF 1985.

About Me

It's remarkably easy
(Well, for me, at least),
To fantasize endlessly about what life will be like
Five and a half months from now.

Gloriously free,
The shackles cast aside,
Finally, finally, being granted the opportunity
To order my life as I see fit.

But, I must admit,
There lingers beneath my carefully cultivated
facade of youthful bravado,
A trace of fear.
